Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine.
The August number, abounding with edifying and pleasant reading, is already upon our table, and is always welcome. "New Zealand and the Canterbury Settlement" is the opening article, by Rev. F. Pember, B. A., with numerous illustrations. The late Lady Blanche Murphy, Rev. E. A. Rand, F. E. Weatherly, James Croil, James Buckham, Alfreton Hervey, Mrs. Alexander, J. Alex. Patten, and other favorite writers, have contributed to this number. The editor, T. De Witt Talmage, D.D., gives some excellent "Advice to Young People," and the Home Pulpit has a sermon of his, "Is Life Worth Living?" There are two interesting serials, and sketches, essays, poems, etc.; a miscellany, interesting and instructive, and the usual record of important events, editorial comments, obituaries, etc., etc. Price 25 cents a number, $2.50 a year, postpaid. Mrs. FRANK LESLIE, Publisher, 67, 69 or 71 Park Place, New York.

COUNTY NEWS.

Horse race Sunday.
A little excitement Tuesday night among the natives.
The farmers along the Rio Grande are harvesting this week.
If the Post butcher's heart is as tender as his meat, it is very tender indeed.
Communications to this paper should be directed to the GOLDEN ERA, Lincoln, N. M.

The proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners will appear, in full, in our next issue.
The walls of Ellis' new store building are about completed. The house is a credit to the county.

J. S. Lea rendered us valuable assistance in unloading and placing our press, for which he has our thanks.
The Democrats of this precinct meet to-day (Thursday) to select delegates to the County Convention which is called for the 21st inst.

J. A. Tomlinson is fixing up an old adobe building near Johnny Hurley's for his photograph gallery.
We are under obligations to James Reid, J. D. Grumbles and Paul Wagner, for assistance in loading our press and material at White Oaks.

Our friends coming to the county seat will find our office in the court house, up-stairs. When you visit the hub, don't forget to give us a call.
We were shown a beautiful specimen of copper glance from a recent strike in the Red Cloud Lodge, Gallina-district. W. J. Spence is part owner and has the management of the property.

A petition largely signed by the best people of Lincoln and Roswell, was sent to Washington Tuesday praying for a daily mail to these points. Lincoln being the county seat it should have a daily mail by all odds, as all the county's business is done here. The lower country is fast filling up, and the wants of those people should not be ignored.

We have lost about one hundred and twenty-five head of cattle and horses between El Paso and Hudgens' ranch. The cattle have various Mexican brands, and are freshly branded with anchor (upside down) on the side. The horses have same brand, on left shoulder. Anyone noticing stock with above brand will be liberally paid by notifying the assistant manager of the Coyote and Red Lake Cattle Company, White Oaks, N. M. W. H. HEDGESS, A. M.

Tuesday evening complaint was made against Leandro Pacheco, living three miles east of Lincoln, for assaulting his wife. Deputy sheriff Brent arrested the accused, and the following afternoon he was tried before Justice Aguayo. The prisoner's wife has quite an ugly wound on the forehead, which she claims was done with a case-knife in the hands of her husband. The accused claims that she received the cut by falling and striking her head against a skillet or the casing of the door. Justice Aguayo placed the bond at $500 for the prisoner's appearance at the next term of court, and, as we go to press, he has not been able to secure the necessary bond.

Notice.
I have sold my entire brand of cattle to the Coyote and Red Lake Cattle Company. I will assume full management for the company during the absence of Dr. Wm. Y. Provoost.
W. H. HEDGESS.
